

What's happening to our voting rights? Voter suppression & the politics of exclusion

COMMUNITY FORUM co-sponsored by LWV Oakland

Thursday November 9, 2017, 7:00-9:00 PM, ELKS LODGE, Alameda

Kim Geron, Ph.D. is a Professor of Political Science, at California State University East Bay. His research interests include race and ethnic politics, the labor movement and immigration policy. He teaches courses in American Politics and Public Policy and serves as a mentor for students majoring in Public Affairs and Administration who wish to become active members of the local and global community.

Helen Hutchison is President of the League of Women Voters of California and Vice-Chair of the Action Committee of the Oakland League. A retired computer systems analyst, Helen joined the League in 1969 and has served in various capacities as she and her family moved around the country. In the state League she has been active in strategic planning, initiative and referendum reform, legislation, ballot measures and redistricting.

Michael Chase is a Board Member of the ACLU of Northern California and the Paul Robeson Alameda County Chapter of the ACLU, which includes Oakland and most of the rest of Alameda County. He covers issues involving government surveillance, police misconduct, immigrants' rights, racial justice, voting rights, and free speech. Mike trains people to know their rights and enjoys "speaking truth to power" in public and private meetings.
